The East Williston Creative Arts Workshop is a non-profit organization that provides enrichment programs to district students on Saturday mornings. We are accepting applications from students in grades 8 through 12 to be Student Assistants in our program for the Fall session. Our programs are held at the Willets Road School in Roslyn Heights. Students will be offered community service hours if all requirements are met.

Each Student Assistant is responsible for assisting the teacher in setting and cleaning up the classroom. Student Assistants will assist with projects and help students participate in class activities. All selected assistants will be required to sign and uphold a letter of commitment.

To apply: Please fill in the form above. Applications will be accepted ONLY by email. Submit the completed form as an attachment with a photo to creativeartsvolunteers@gmail.com. Applications must be received with photo by January 3, 2020.

There are a limited number of positions. Applicants will be notified via email by January 6, 2020. Please contact Alison Bender or Jen Lam at creativeartsvolunteers@gmail.com with any questions.
